

The Rural College, Kanakapura

First Prayer Committee Meeting 2017-18

The first prayer committee meeting was held in the principal's chamber on 10th July 2017 at 03.30pm. And it was presided by the Principal M.Vikram.

The Convenor of the committee Prof. Devaraju, HOD of Sociology has explained the need of the Morning Prayers in the educational institutions including HEIs instructed by the DCE (Directorate of Collegiate Education) Karnataka through its circular issued in 2016 to implement its order in the colleges. Accordingly, in our college Morning prayers have been held since January 2016 from 9.50AM to 10.05AM in the college quadrangle.

The Morning Prayer consists of the following elements.

1. Thought for the day (A noble message by a great thinker)
2. Reading News Headlines both in Kannada and English.
3. Announcements if any.
4. Speech by a student on a selected topic on general studies.
5. Concluded with National anthem.

The committee allocated the work among its members month wise. The mentors of the classes are asked to select two students from each section to present their topics in the Morning Prayer. It is the duty of the mentor to motivate the student and to scrutinize the topics before presentation. The co-ordinator is to supervise the prayer meetings.

All the members present in the meeting.
