

THE RURAL COLLEGE, KANAKAPURA-562117

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

DEPARTMENT PROFILE

History is a delightful subject which gives meaning to life and action. It is true in the case of Poojya Sri. S. Kariyappa, who dedicated himself to the cause of literacy for rural youth. With this noble aim, he started the Rural College in 1955 at Kanakapura, which is one of the four taluk headquarters of Ramanagar District. It is situated on the banks of Arkawati, a tributary of the great Cauvery. Epigraphical evidences reveal that, it was a part of Mudigondacholamandala and was ruled by Ganga, Hoysala, Vijayanagara rulers and Seegalanadu Prabhus. The name Kanakanahalli, now Kanakapura is a modification of Kanikaranahalli referred in epigraphical evidences which mean village of coin makers during the Hoysala period. In this taluk of historical importance a Department of History was opened in the year 1965.

During the year 2006, a three year Tourism degree programme was started to impart professional education and training in various aspects of tourism, to rural students. It develops skill in business and public relations to enable them to meet the challenges of globalization at national and international levels.
