Historical monument cleaning at Aralalu villege near Kanakapura.

Action plan Swachhata pakhwada 1Dec to 15 Dec 2019.

Cadets of our college marched to the centuries old Aralalu Sri Adi Narayana Swamy temple on the outskirts of Kanakapura. The renowned temple lying unattended inspite of being a;Muzrai temple, is in a very dilapidated condition and over grown with vegetation As many as 70 Cadets set out to remove the debris and overgrown vegetation on the roof working for 4 hours from early morning to give the temple a new looks. Residents of Aralalu turned up in large numbers and gave outstanding support by arranging for breakfast and tea. They full of admiration for the noble intentions of students. The Principal Dr. M. Govindappa also visited Aralalu and addressed the gathering and thanked the residents for their sympathy. The taluk administration also responded by sending their revenue inspector Venkatesh and Villege Accountant Kiran .Earlier cadets went round the streets of Aralalu holding a huge banner bearing the message of the programme.

Asst prof of commerce and HOD Thammannagowda PU Principal Rudresh and the villagers Basavaraju, Prashanth, chikkiah, Mrutunjaya Jayaramu, Srinivas, Boregowda, Gopala, Krishnaiah, Suresh, Mallesh, priest Dayanidhi, Were presented.

NCC Officer Lt. Vijendra M J accompanied the Cadets.
